

Empower Your Future
and Ignite Change...

Train to become a teacher

The National Institute of Teaching's Initial Teacher Training is a fully immersive school-centred programme – aspiring teachers will be in the classroom from the very start.

About the National Institute of Teaching (NioT)

The NioT was set up by four of the country's leading school trusts who have a successful track record in training teachers. We access national expertise and develop our own research whilst still being locally rooted in schools and communities.

Benefits of training with the NIoT:

- ✔ Gain QTS and a PGCE
- ✔ Full and part-time training options available
- ✔ Multiple funding options available
- ✔ Join a new, pioneering institute established by a diverse community of schools
- ✔ Outstanding training, delivered by experts
- ✔ The opportunity to make a real difference to children's lives

Visit our website to find out more information on:

- Funding and ITT costs
- Entry requirements
- Upcoming Teacher Training information events
- The application process
- What you need to do to get started

To receive this information directly to your inbox, scan the QR code

What you need to be eligible to train:

- ✔ A bachelor's degree, or equivalent
- ✔ A GCSE grade C or above in English and maths, or equivalent
- ✔ Primary teachers will need a GCSE grade C or above in science, or equivalent
- ✔ You'll need to have studied your subject at least to the level you're planning to teach*.

Exceptions will be considered on a case-by-case basis.*

Train to teach with the National Institute of Teaching
niot.org.uk