a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 10)

Bronson's Burgers operates a wide range of delivery services and a dine-in restaurant across London. A range of conditions are suggested:

- A CCTV system will be provided at the premises which will have a facility to retain recordings for 30 days, and which will have a date/time stamp facility.
- The staff members(s) on site will be familiar with the CCTV system's operation and be able to provide footage to the Police or Licencing Authority.
- No noise which is audible externally will emanate from the premises or other disturbance such as vibration from plant/equipment or fumes, steam or odour which would give rise to nuisance.
- Notices that will be clearly visible to delivery drivers will be affixed to ensure noise is kept to a minimum to avoid disturbance to business and residents in the area.
- An incident log will be kept at the premises and made available to the Police or Licencing Authority. The incident log shall record any complaints relating to crime/disorder, incidents of disorder or reported crimes, and any faults in CCTV system.
- A telephone number for the Manager will be displayed at the premises whilst open to enable reporting of any relevant incidents/complaints.
- The Premises Holder or a nominated person shall ensure that members of staff are trained in their responsibilities under the Licensing Act 2003. This training will be documented and made available to the Police or Licencing Authority when requested.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Staff will be trained to be vigilant of any potential crime and anti-social behaviour and will be assisted by good levels of lighting, CCTV and ensuring access is restricted to authorised users.

The public is not served at the premises – only staff members and those delivery drivers collecting food to take to customers off-site. CCTV, lighting, and access control will ensure public safety.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Notices will be placed at the property to ensure delivery drivers keep quiet, including engines being switched off whilst waiting.
